Dedication

*Man strives for glory, honor, fame
That all the world may know his name;
Amasses wealth by brain or hand,
Becomes a power in the land.*

*But when he nears the end of life,
And looks back o'er the years of strife,
He finds that happiness depends
On none of these, but love of friends.*

ENUS I. HAYWARD

The Class of 1954 owes much to those who have given their efforts to make our high school lives a success. First our parents who have guided us with love and understanding through these past twelve years. Then our teachers and advisors whose encouragement and knowledge have helped us reach our goal. Finally our classmates with whom we have worked and shared all the memorable events of high school life. To these — our friends — we dedicate this book.

Andrisen, Olsen, Hagen

Class Of 1955

If you could have taken a peek into the Little Theater on Fridays during activity period, you would have seen the up and coming junior class conducting their class meetings. Presiding over the class was John Andrisen with Floyd Hagen ready to fill any vacancy. Mary Olsen acted as secretary and treasurer.

Representing the class in Student Council were Andrea Brown and John Andrisen. Mr. Maursetter, Miss Olson, Mr. Collison, and Mr. Larson ably aided the class as advisors.

Joann Aamot and Carol Anderson were chosen as princesses for Monte Day and Homecoming. Among the football and basketball cheerleaders were two junior girls, Pam Claggett and Susan Weber.

Juniors may be found participating in nearly every extra-curricular school activity. The class also had charge of concessions for the basketball season.

Everyone who attended these dances will long remember the "Winter Wonderland" and "Heart Hop" sponsored by the juniors.

One of the highlights of the year was the class play "The Green Bough," which was presented November 12th and 13th under the direction of Miss Ruth Westrom. The juniors set an all-time high record in class play ticket sales at this time.

Class Of 1956

Friday's activity period finds the sophomore class holding their regular meeting in the study hall. The meetings are called to order by the president, Ronald Ree. In case of Ron's absence, Tim Ondahl, the vice-president, takes over. Bill Weber fulfills the duties of secretary treasurer. The class is advised by Miss Johnson, Miss Passe, Miss Mickelson, and Mr. Bleanich.

The duties of the sophomores are, mainly, decorating for baccalaureate and commencement exercises.

Lois Mettling and Sharon Haug were chosen as the sophomore Monte Day princesses. Both were very worthy of the title.

Representing the class in Student Council are Mary Ann Klefstad and Phil Roe.

In almost every extra-curricular activity one can find sophomores. Some of these are: speech, debate, band, orchestra, mixed chorus, glee club, FFA, FHA, GAA, journalism, rifle club, basketball, and football.

Junior High

Three hundred eighty students make up the junior high section of Central High School this year. One hundred six students constitute the three sections in the seventh grade. The eighth grade with the overwhelmingly large number of one hundred twenty four students was divided into four sections after the first semester.

The freshman class consisting of one hundred fifty-one students is organized on the same plan as the senior high. Their business meetings are held once a week with the entire group. The officers of the freshman class are: president, Janet Armstrong; vice-president, Richard Enstad; secretary-treasurer, Karen Mohn; and student council representatives are Pat Kern, Jonay Lanes, Loren Herrsch, and Mary Sletten. Their class advisors are Mr. Sowle, Mr. Stal, and Mr. Hubbard.

The seventh grade class of one hundred fifty-nine students is divided into three sections—the seven ones, the seven twos, and the seven threes. The seven ones have Miss Sandager as their advisor. Their class officers are: president, Elizabeth Owens; vice-president, Jimmy Jensen; secretary-treasurer, Floyd Jacobson; student council representative, Frances Olson.

The advisor of the seven twos is Mr. Eliason. Their class officers are: president, Sybil Stokke; vice-president, Carmen Pomroy; secretary, Wayne Ost; treasurer, David Stimpson; and their student council representative is Kenneth Miller.

Miss Miller is the advisor of the seven threes. Their president is Nancy Lee Gordon; vice-president, Terry Collins; secretary-treasurer, Trudy Ellingson; and Frank Gniifke is the student council representative.

The class of 1958, originally made up of three sections, has now been divided into four sections.

The eight one's advisor is Miss Audreen Anderson. Their president is Victor Moose; vice-president, Tom Brown; secretary-treasurer, Susan Hartzell; and student council representative is Ronald Blank.

The eight twos section has Mr. Crews as their advisor. Their president is David Mohn; vice-president, Ronald Frank; secretary, Ronald Cole; treasurer, Jilene Huebner, and Ronald Lanes is the student council representative.

Mr. Holten is the advisor of the eight threes. Pat Vogt is the president and Larry Angrimson is the vice-president. The secretary-treasurer is Clifford Sowle and the representative for the student council is Stanley Smith.

Mrs. Brown is the advisor of the new eight four section. Betty Norman is president, Jane Jacobson is vice-president, Linda Dilly is secretary-treasurer, and Gordon

Jacobson is the student council representative.

G.A.A. is one of the many extra-curricular activities in the Junior High. There are thirty-six girls participating in this group under the direction of Miss Audreen Anderson. The officers are: president, Nancy Farber; vice-president, Barbara Bentson; secretary, Susan Hartzell, and treasurer, Joanne Linnee. At the beginning of the school year the girls bowled at each of their meetings which were held every Tuesday afternoon. A little later on they played volleyball and basketball was played through the winter months. In the spring of the year the girls play kittenball.

The junior high boys have their field of sports too. Football and basketball squads are organized in each of the three grades. Mr. Crews is both football and basketball coach. This year has been a very successful one for him and the boys.

Another prominent junior high activity is journalism under the direction of Miss Miller. This is the second year of the junior high's own paper, The Mohawk Messenger. The staff consists of: editor, Kay Lorans; news, Grace Gallagher; feature, Susan Stuber; sports, James Smith and Lee Rau; music, Venita Swanson; art, Sharon Maus, and photography, John Peterson. The remaining twenty three are reporters. The Mohawk Messenger is published every six weeks.

Junior high speech is also a very popular activity. About twenty-two students entered in either the humorous, dramatic, or oratory division. They were coached by Miss Passe. The contest was held March 11 this year and ratings were given to all the students in each of the sections.

Music plays a very important part in the junior high. There are thirty-three junior high students in the "A" band and forty-five in the "B" band. The pep band which plays at football and basketball games consists of the more advanced players. Many junior high students are members of this organization.

The junior high choruses have a large representation of students. The girls' chorus has a membership of eighty and the boys' chorus has a membership of twenty four.

In these two musical divisions there are quite a few ensembles. Some consist of only junior high students and others have both junior and senior high students. Mr. Forde directs all the instrumental groups and the vocal groups are under the direction of Mr. Odean.

Considering all these activities we see that the junior high is a very active part of Central High School.

Class History

Way back in 1941 when the graduating class of 1954 started on the long road to commencement, little did we expect to have so many memories with us as we graduate.

How faint is the memory of fond mothers sending their darling tots to their first day of school. The annual holiday parties were the big events of our lives. One of the highlights of the Sibleyites was our Rhythm Band with the sticks, tambourines, triangles, and xylophone. Some of the musically inclined students have achieved greater heights in our high-school music organizations. Another milestone in our life was the operetta 'Polly Make-Believe'. Remember the vegetable parade? Chucky Gordon, Toy Claggett, Lois Hanson, and Robert Eatten got the enviable parts in "Tag, You're It".

Fifth grade brought into view the first major boy-girl interests. The girls' interests outnumbered the boys' however, the usual ratio being 8 to 3 or 11 to 3. Those Halloween memories will definitely remain with us. What about Mrs. Blackhurst's lectures, Gary? A last glance at fifth grade reveals Benny Schultz and his loyal troop of school patrols.

With sixth grade came our great transition to Central School. The size seemed overwhelming to our twelve-year old eyes. There we first displayed our journalistic qualities evidenced by the 203 News edited by Lois Hanson and assisted by a willing crew and able staff.

After a restful (?) summer vacation, our junior high life was initiated, with all the fascinating changes from grade school to our high school career--lockers, home-rooms, and several different teachers during the course of the day. Our first night school parties came to being and brought on much excitement.

Having an A and B honor roll was something new and different. It was a great change to see Toy Claggett come to school minus her pigtails. Some of the happiest moments in our lives were the spring picnics held in one of the city parks; here we ate our fill of candy and ice cream. Remember the bike rides out to Camp Release and the cemetery? In eighth and ninth grade our class enrollment was enlarged by the kids from the country. At this time the Watson gang also invaded our halls. Remember the two inseparables, Ann and Gail? It was not until ninth grade that you would hear, 'May I have this dance? Does the group recall dancing to 'Harbor Lights'--our favorite? It was definitely a heart-breaking occasion when Helen Buel gave Ozzie Wolf up to Sally Stokke's fatal charms.

Class History

The ascension to senior high brought about a great many changes. One of the most startling was the soprano-baritone variation of Terry Miller's voice. With our sophomore year came fireworks, frogs, and crayfish. It broke Amy's little heart to cut up 'Fit-Lit'. We felt slighted because we were denied the right to a class party. The Youth Center was the highlight of the week. Every Friday night we'd all go down to the Stunner Club.

Our junior year was the prelude to our commencement. We were known as money-mad to the rest of the high school, even though it seems to be a characteristic of all junior classes. Selling at those cold, cold football games, and the rowdy basketball games, along with our class play led to a fund for our junior prom. 'Our Town' starring Jo Harlin and Pat Welo broke all previous records as far as sales are concerned, and, in our eyes, all records of performance. This year for the first time we disposed of the banquet. We all ran butterflies in our stomachs waiting to hear Cliff Hayes break out with 'Anchors Aweigh'. Joyce Berzeniah had a fine job in her rendition of 'How Deep is the Ocean'. Our work with the mirals, life-buoys, sea-rises, bubble machines, and fish balloons for 'Under the Sea' was not in vain. There were quite a few exciting moments getting ready for this memorable event. Karen Wickland took quite a tumble from the ladder on wheels.

As we departed from our junior year the 25th of May, it seemed hard to realize we would take the position of seniors at Monte High. When September 4th rolled around, we entered the halls of Monte for our last year. We were the seniors! The decided transition from a prom to a class trip brought about a need for more funds. We started our second year of selling at games, but after a few games we turned the concessions over to the junior class. Our great money-making project this year was the magazine campaign. Would you like to subscribe to the Saturday Evening Post? Gary managed the campaign and Joan Farber showed her selling ability by being our top salesman. After this event our class meetings were taken up with discussions of pictures, cap and gowns, and announcements. As we are writing this now every senior is looking forward to our trip to Chicago.

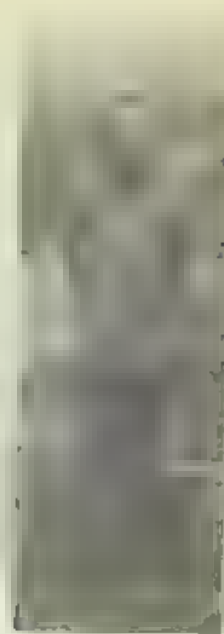

As we hear Phyllis and Marilyn's parting speeches we feel a lump in our throats. The words are forgotten but the memory lingers on.

Class Will

We, the undersigned members of the graduating class of the year of 1954 of the high school of the city of Montevideo, in the county of Chippewa and state of Minnesota, being of supposedly sound mind and memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, sorrowfully leave behind our little attributes and idiosyncrasies to the underclassmen, juniors, in hope that they will do justice to them.

"CHAS" ROFFERDING leaves his way of "cutting up" in sociology class to Donny Einerson.

TOY "MYKIN" CLAGGETT bequeaths her 100% G.A.A. scoring to a junior who can really use it, Joe "Hero" Andrisen.

IES "BOVELLI" ROUNDEBUSH wills his long list of telephone numbers and absolute shyness with women to John Ekberg.

MARILYN GOAR bestows her soprano position in senior chorus to two "Met" singers--Andy Brown and Betty Swanson (sing pretty girls!)

Dick "Olds" Bluth receives the expert driving ability of RUSSELL HOFF.

Those "try-to-stop-me" giggles of JANIS M. PETERSON are left to the joker of the junior class, Mary Jane Krum.

GORDON BAKER bequeaths his ability of incessant chatter to Shirley Maus and Patricia Winters.

MARION and MARILYN (SALT and PEPPER) BROWN leave their "Campbell's Tomato Soup" and "Pork and Beans" to the twins of the junior class, Jean and Janice Sunderland.

"DIDRED" "SHUTTERBUG" shyness but entertaining ways go to John Peterson, the "shutterbug" of the junior class.

JUDITH GAIL CLAGGETT half-heartedly and reluctantly gives to Pam Claggett, her position as cheerleader and unforgettable hours in English IV.

MARILYN GERDES leaves her love to stay out late and get up early to Carol Saue.

GAILY AUGERSON gives up her seat and ability to recite in first hour English class to June Rikke.

Lorraine Olson will be happy to discover that she is the sole heir-ess of KATHRYN EAGLESON'S beautiful auburn hair.

GARY GLOMSTA bestows his small stature, unmatched brain, and intro-vert manners to Joann Aamot.

LOIS HILLIS directs her job as ticket collector in the hot lunch line to Marilyn Vang.

Though we wanted to will the diamonds of lucky EVELYN MENGE and "CHUCKIE" LAGELLI, they seemed to have some sentimental attachment so we'll just wait for the "big events"!

Barb Rodeberg receives (although she doesn't need it), LAUREN ETTESVOLD'S naturally curly hair.

DOY "LOOPY" FORTE is leaving his intramural ability and "flights" to the south each winter to Arden Trandahl.

Just to keep her name on the record, LOIS HANSON is willing her last name to Denny and Helen, two other Hansons.

ROBERTA FUGER is giving away a "gold mine". Her golden personality and golden smile go to Maureen Ettesvold and Sue Iverson--two "brilliant" damsels.

And now we come to a very deserving senior. This gal set the world on fire with $16.49. To lucky Karen Heynart go ANN FANGSUND'S many talents.

Class Will

The well known crooner of stage and screen, LEN TOSTENSON, leaves his interpretation of "Why Don't You Believe Me?" to Sue Weber, the mighty song leader of the junior class.

LEON WARD bestows his false eyelashes, freckles (?) and "third" ownership of Gladys's to Arnold Lange.

AVIS REINHART wills her "Carter's Little Liver Pills" to Donovan Bentson.

The beautiful vibrating quality of DIANE BROVOLD'S tenor voice goes to Irene Oakland (let's not practice in study hall!)

DEAN ROEBBERG bids adieu to his monstrous cranium filled with (?). The receiver of the gift is Harlis Nordaune.

Resolved that: to Barbara Frommel goes PHYLLIS KIEF'S affirmative and negative measures in debate.

John Andrisen receives that pet phrase of FAT WEBB, "Will the meeting please come to order?"

ALICE "ICEBERG" WALLIN was going to give her key position in band to Solveig Berg, but it seems the chair is frozen hard to the floor.

MARLEN M. MARK'S cloud of dreams floats on to Verlie Anderson.

LOIS CULLEN and CAROL EUBANK bid good-bye to their boisterous manner. The receivers are Arnold Gulden and Charles Jacobs.

STANLEY ADLERSON'S love to enjoy living and loafing is given to Richard Christians.

ELAINE HANSON'S friendly "hi" each morning goes to Larry Cuam.

To Roger Lyhre goes that imported hair oil for that Hollywood look from DEWAYNE WILLIAMSON.

PAUL GULLEN'S big, big eyes and manly physique go to John Kurtzbein.

Carol and Joan Anderson are lucky to get that cousin kinship of BEV and MARY GROOTHIUS.

BETTY STARK wills those Monday-morning blues to Barbara Bouska.

PHYLLIS OF ILA leaves the "Painting the Town of Watson" to Sonja Metling.

RICHARD ROSETTER leaves his willingness to always help to Ralph Weflen.

To Betty Hanson goes JOANN FARBER'S serious and conscientious educational participation--especially in "Ricky's" class.

HELEN BUNLOW'S dramatic poetic ability goes to Roma Kutzik.

LARRY SCHELI wills his shy, quiet, intellectual self to Olaf Ostenso.

MARLIS COT bestows that sparkle, or is it a gleam in her eye, to Sharon Simenstad.

LILA BLACK leaves her advice to the lovelorn to Carol Sawert.

MERLYN BROWN, ROGER HENRIKSEN, and MARVIN GARBE, leave their bygone womanless lives (?) to Williard Mathiason, Lyle Heidal, and William Beltz.

HELEN JENSEN and PAT LAURITSEN give their arrival to school at 8:35 to Mary Frien and Charlotte Peterreins.

ARDEN BALDWIN'S efforts in moving pianos and stage properties fall into the hands of Kenny Olsen, a fellow "curtain-puller."

DONA GREEN leaves her big, round, and "oh, so effective" eyes to Arlene Loe.

To Richard Flake goes PALMER SANDBAKKEN'S way with both "Ricky" and "Ernie."

LICK "DIAMOND" RYLAND leaves his first class position on the "diamond" to Dale Teigen.

Those gay, hilarious giggle sessions in chorus of LOYCE FRANK go to a fellow "yakker", Mary Schneider.

DONNY MERRICK gladly gives his trouble with grammar (not his own, of course) to Danny Blank.

Class Will

JOEY ST. LOUIS' blond hair and expressive eyes are willed to Grace Webb.

That lucky (?) junior, Jim Larson, should be thrilled with this generous gift--JOYCE "GUS" BERGENDAHL'S full-packed joke book, plus that extra walk and drawl.

RAY FERRIT'S love of sixth hour law class goes tolinger Birhanzi.

LUCAS SMITH leaves Mr. Huchard and the southeast end of first floor to Larry Norton, the junior "future farmer".

Bonnie "Bonnie" Olsen receives the constant love for food and "Hercules" shoulders of VANCE OST.

JOEY ST. LOUIS bestows her ability to produce bigger and better "Montevideos" to Shirley Olson and Mary Olson, next year's editors.

That fabulous collection of class rings belonging to JAMES L. HALL goes to next year's "gold-lover", Janice Larson.

Maxine Eotten is very fortunate to inherit PAT KROFF'S ever present wit and sociable personality.

ROBERT HALL leaves his Boy Scout chivalry and achievements to the "fire maker" of '55, Roger Paulson.

NEAL HALL'S position in protection club goes to John Hagsund (remember the sound, John!)

JOEY ST. LOUIS bequeaths his natural ability of memorizing poetry for Miss Passe to Bruce Lanes.

JOEY ST. LOUIS receives the 'task' of carrying on a boys' quartet," says the spokesman, TERRY MILLER.

That slow, easy gait of JOEY ST. LOUIS is left to Lloyd Christians.

After much persuasion we finally got ANITA JOYCE to give up her quiet ways to Lois Kittleson.

JOEY ST. LOUIS wills those late night hours to Dave Offerman, his junior contemporary.

JOEY ST. LOUIS is giving his greeting (a powerful "pat" on the back) to Norman Sampson.

JOEY ST. LOUIS leaves his artistic ability to Mary Ann Vomacka (as if she needed it.)

"Love by Love" is the theme of the senior couple, GAIL ANDERSON and JOEY ST. LOUIS. They leave these "love"-ly strains to June Schultz and David Oakland.

That charming "tepid" smile of JOEY ST. LOUIS goes to Marcia "Colgate" Holm.

Now we pause a moment to bow before the royalty of the class, "Her Majesty the lovely and gracious Queen of Monte-Hi," JOAN M. HALL. Because we know she will never lose any of her lovely charm or sweet disposition, we hope the future queen will possess the same qualities.

JOEY ST. LOUIS gives up all her brilliant remarks to Karen Peterson.

We leave JOEY ST. LOUIS' job at Woolworth's to Harvey Huseby. (Oh! It seems it's already been left!)

JOEY ST. LOUIS, the "pied piper of females" leaves his long line of women waiting for his slightest smile to Floyd Hagen, "Romeo" of the junior class.

The mad, gay, social world belonging to DALE KVANLI, goes to Elton Shimp.

JOEY ST. LOUIS' becoming short hair cut is bequeathed to Yvonne Zahn and Evonne Swenson.

JOEY ST. LOUIS' fascination of stealing paper rings from King Edward Cigars goes to Monte Hudson.

Class Will

RUTH ADAMSON hesitantly gives her bookkeeping notes to Annette Danielson.

HERBIE ADAMSON leaves intestate.

All wrapped up in a fancy package labeled "fragile" goes a valued gift called charm from JANICE E. PETERSON to Sue Nelson.

Two branches from the Angrimson family tree, VIRGINIA and DIANE, comprise the twig handed down to Llewelyn.

C.C.C. (calm, cool, and collected??) KATHY HAGA leaves her title to Karen Hemmingson.

JOAN LOKEL and FLORINE HAMPE bestow their pleasant personalities on two juniors, Lavilla Anderson and Lorraine Agre.

That certain something called "poise" is what Ardeth Boettcher receives from MARILYN RAFFELSON.

The recipients of LORRAINE HEGG'S and MARILYN JAHN'S happy-go-lucky natures are Ruby Peterson and Delores Kranz.

PHYLLIS HEMPELICK, the lass with the delicate air, wills her social graces to Beverly Jacobs.

ROSE VELDE leaves her last testament, wreckless driving habits, to Virginia Eid.

That gal in the clouds, MARGARET STROBEEN, wills her high altitude to Diane Lachelt.

That gleaming Dutch Cleanser smile of BOB HEIDEMAN goes to Roger Linnee.

MARLENE HOCHSTEIN'S blond, curly locks are laid to rest on Joann Severson's head.

JUDY SANDPENG gives up her seat in senior class meetings to Marjorie Watson, a senior to be.

Those little efficiencies of RAY ROBINSON are given to Dorothy Nokelby.

LENIDA JEFFERSON'S position as president of "Passe's" Ladies Aid is bestowed to Beverly Mills.

CARL FURH transfers his potent smile to Farlan Moseng.

BETTY HOLLEN bestows her job at the local theater on Joann Densmore.

RICHARD LAUB bequeaths his knowledge of "tilling the soil" to that up and coming farmer, Arlo Raffelson.

DONALD SCHULTE and ROBERT SMITH leave their independent ways to Richard Mills and Harlan Olson.

The repeated endeavors to be gentlemen go from LYNN MILLS and DONALD NORMAN to David Strommer.

From that lady with the lily white palms, ARDIS VAN HEUVELN, goes that L-A-V-A look in just five days, to her sister, Leona.

We, the class of 1954, do herefore ordain, establish, and declare the aforementioned items to be our last will and testament.

Class Prophecy

The following is a letter taken from the files of "Grandpa" Lenn Brown, who is peacefully residing at "The Shady Nook Home for Rest", Sandblast, Missouri.

Montevideo, Minnesota
June 4, 1972

Dear Lenn,

Has anything exciting been happening down at Shady Nook lately?

I've just returned from the Chicago world's fair. While there I met many of our old friends and I thought an account of my experiences would help brighten up your day.

I left the new Montevideo Jet Air Base aboard a Super Constellation piloted by DON KORTE, "world renowned breaker of records." Upon arriving in Chicago some minutes later, I jumped into a cab and was greeted by ROG HENDRICKSON'S silvery smile. He told me of his partnership with PHILLIS and RUSS in the Hendrickson, Hendrickson, and Hoff, Hacks Inc. Chief mechanics for the corporation are DON "the wrench" SCHULTZ and BOB "Sparkplug" BOTTEK.

Passing through the busy streets on the west side, Rog pointed out BETTY STAR'S home for Bachelor Girls-----conveniently located across from Lonely KEN TOSTER'S N'S Lonely Hearts Club, male membership only!

Arriving at the fairgrounds I proceeded to the nearest beanery, where to my surprise who should come to my service but MURRAY "Mugs" STROMMEN, the singing hasn singer. I stepped out of the beanery and was almost run down by galloping SIG PEARSON on his horse, Bessy. Sig agreed to guide me through the Agricultural Building. We came upon DEAN WILLIAMSON and LYNN MILLS, experts on farm mechanics. They were demonstrating their many inventions to make modern farming more profitable to the foolish farmer. (A farmer would have to be foolish to use one of their inventions.) HERB ADAMS and a fellow farmer, DON WOLAN, were engrossed in a fine exhibition of hog troughs. I also saw smiling RICH ROLETTER, the bas-fil farm boy. He was feeling very chipper because DON "Super Vet" LEMNICK had just cured his prize porker, Hepziban, from the incurable disease "Binyire-Antinistimine."

Browsing through the second floor, we came upon MARVIN GABE and LAM ENDE MATT, new seed specialists from the International University of the world. They had just completed the inspection of RICHARD LAUB'S and CARL RUTH'S finest specimens of wheat and found them to be of the most inferior quality possible!!! In the same vicinity LAM "the red-headed rooster raiser" ROEBLING was showing off his quality poultry to two old classmates, ANITA JOYCE and LOUAINA NEGJ. Near the exit of the farm building was SPINLEY REE, with a swag on her nose and a greasy wrench in the pocket of her coveralls, demonstrating the hydre-jet-floomatic transmission unit in the new Kvanli Tractor. The tractor is being produced by DALE KVALI, the multi-million manufacturer.

Upon completing our tour of the agriculture exposition, I bade Sig farewell and proceeded to the medical building. There I took in the many wonders of modern science and medicine. Demonstrating a new pill-pushing machine was Sir BYRON DOUGLAS WEBB, noted American "pill-pusher." Quietly assisting him was LENIDA JEPSON. Lenida just wasn't herself. When I asked of this strange phenomenon, I learned that she had lost her voice three years hence in a pill explosion.

Moving on through the medical center I met ELAINE HANSON and EVELYN MONROE, registered nurses, demonstrating the "by-chrombic precipitator system" to DIANE

Class Prophecy

B&V. ID--now head matron of Get Dared Hospital in Boston. There she stood giving them that same old Indian look she gave me back in fourth hour chemistry!

The next attraction to catch my eye was the music department. Only the finest quality musicians were present. In the vocal department I ran across two old friends, LES (they now call him the "Golden Throat Kid", ROUEBUSH and ROBERTA ENGEL, professionally known as Roberto Engershtzel. Next fall these two young monotones are getting a nation wide hook-up on radio and television. I always knew those two kids had some hidden talent because none ever came out while they were in high school!

As I neared the operatic section, some unidentified sounds sent little tiny shivers tingling up my spine. I was very much surprised to see JOYCE BERGENDAHL sitting on a little stone pillar rendering forth the most touching arrangement of "Our Boys Will Shine Tonight."

I met JANICE E. and JAMES M. PETERSON in the instrumental department comparing notes on the progress of their careers during the past eighteen years. Janice E. has been exceptionally busy working the night spots along Brooklyn's East side. James M.'s career hasn't gone much further than that of organist on Sunday mornings as she is kept busy at home with her six children and the dog, Sambo.

Next I hobbled into the merchandising department. (By this time I had pretty well worn the tin off my left crutch.) There I ran across a few of the old R.T.C.P.T. students. Remember LILLEN BRIDGECLO? He's now owner and operator of a dime store chain called--LILLEN'S--they have the cheapest merchandise in town! Four of his more efficient managers are his old classmates, MARLENE HOCHSHEIN, SARLY WIGGON, AILEE BRIDGECLO, and VIRGINIA ANGLIMSON. They're known as Lauren's "Morans".

ED. B. BRIDGECLO was in the clothing department. Now a chief executive in the I. J. Penny company, he gave all of his clothes at a sixty per cent discount.

In a corner of the building I met CHUCK PORTER operating a little stand specializing in potato peelers. I was certainly lucky to get there when I did as he was about to close his special of one potato peeler, cabbage grinder, and tomato chopper--all for one dollar. I bought one for the wife!

As I went out I heard a familiar voice hollering "Hurry, hu-rr-y, hu-rr-yv. Open right up and see the latest thing on wheels today." I ventured over to the attraction. LILLEN BRIDGECLO and ROBERT BRIDGECLO, the two old sharks, are now in the automobile industry. They started at the bottom of the ladder and are still there!

Next on my itinerary was the building of higher education. While there I ran across several former graduates now employed in the teaching profession. NEAL J. BRIDGECLO is in his seventh heaven. He has just been appointed superintendent of Miss Friebo's School for Girls in New York. MARILYN KERN and E. V. BARNETT are currently employed at Moorhead High School here in Minnesota. Marilyn is head history teacher in the senior class while E. V. is kept busy in the physics department. I also met Professor ELMER E. BRIDGECLO. He has just recently received his d. I. D. degree in anatomy. He seems to enjoy his job at Harvard Medical School excessively!

It was very heart warming indeed, to hear of RUTH ADAMSON'S and ROSE VEIDE'S chosen vocation. They are now employed as instructors at Pennsylvania's State Reformatory for men.

Although JULIA BRIDGECLO, LOIS CHESMAN, and ELAINE LANGERMAN were never among the ranks of "Lillem's Little Helpers", they have followed in his footsteps by becoming heads of visual education departments in three Wisconsin high schools.

In the ancient historical section of the building I saw MARILYN JAHN with LILLEN BRIDGECLO standing beside the body of the dinosaur. They are both lecture professors at Johns University of Un-natural Science, Sleepy Gulch, Arkansas.

The next exhibition to catch my eye was the Modern Homemaker's building.

Class Prophecy

You'll never guess who won the dressmaking contest! That's right! "Queenie" ANN BANGSUND. (And it only cost $16.49).

Vying for top honors in the "What's New for '72" contest were DONA GREEN and KATHY HAGA. Their most outlandish creations won them a year's supply of "Peter Piper's pickled poplin."

Modeling garments for young grandmothers were JOANN D. HARDING, SALLY STUCKE, and ALICE WILLIEN, who are employed by Granny's Great Garment Company----the only garments with green garters! I bought one for the wife.

In the cafeteria I met MARIYS HOEN, DIANE ANGRIMSON, MARIYS GERDES, and IOLA BLACK having a reunion---their first since 1954. I joined them for a glass of milk and learned that Marlys Hoen is now happily married to the astronomer, Pluto Van Comet. Marlys Gerdes and Iola Black are now employed as milk maids at the M-O-MOO MILK MANUFACTURING COMPANY in MEMPHIS. And Lenn, you'll never guess what Diane A. is doing. She is now in radio. Yes, she has taken over as disk jockey out at KEMA!

The aroma of freshly baked pies lured me into the homemaking kitchen. I was just in time to see the crowning of the national pie baking queen, LOIS "Crisco Kid" GILLES. Runners up were FLORINE HAMRE, SHIRLEY DVERGSTEN, and JUDY SANDBERG.

Judge for the contest was PALMER SANDBAKKEN who had just left the building by way of stretcher. PAUL GOLDEN had been unanimously cornered into succeeding his buddy, Palmer, as judge for the cake baking contest. I stayed just long enough to see PATTY LAURITSEN and BEV and MARY GROOTHUIS present their masterpieces. Standing by was DICK GOLDEN, smacking his lips in hopes that Paul would reach Palmer's fate and he could take over in the cookie contest.

Upon leaving the building, I saw JOANN FANBER, now a professional beautician, who has invented a process called "the homeliest girls made beautiful"!! (She is now a millionaire.) Her able constituent in the beauty business is former homecoming queen, JOANN HARDING.

Time was getting short as I entered the Midway. I stopped at the shooting gallery owned by CHARLES BEEFERING and JEROME JACOBSON. Do you remember when they were kids how they used to practice so much? Also at the shooting gallery was JACK CHILCHER, now working on the Midway. He is a mariac driver in the dare-devil show. He told me that LEO WARD is now given top billing with the show. His act includes driving a flaming motorcycle off a sixty foot drop into a pail of water.

The main attraction on the Midway was a side show run by "BIG HEART D BOP" HUBBARD. (He let me in for free.) I saw TOY CLAGGETT, the world's tallest midget, in a samba act with KAY ROBINSON. AVIS REINHART, another midget, was trying to divert the attention of the crowd by hanging from the rafters by her little toes.

I thought I saw FAY WICHAMND picking a man's pocket, but I wouldn't say for sure. Some say she's in caroots with "LITTLE LOLE" HANSEN, big time worker-over of big crowds.

PHYLLIS GRIEN, JOAN IGLEY, and CHUCKIE LASSELL proudly sat on the bleachers watching the FAWN twins doing their twirling act. MARYLYN twirls her baton while MARIAN twirls her fingers.

The last number on the program was the exhibition of the fat lady-----PAT ALKOFF, and LARRY SCHULI----the biggest, the meanest, the roughest, toughest, and the ornieriest man in the world.

After the show I saw JOHN BETZIK, now a famous carnival splash painter selling portraits at thirty-five cents and up. Model for his fine works was MARKIS OST, one time freckle face, now speckle face.

BOB SMITH and STAN ANDERSON are partners in the tunnel of love business. GAIL STWARD and RON SCHWITZ were just coming out of the exit when BLUTE HOLLEN fell into the stream. Hermoine Tjosas jumped in and saved her life by applying official respiration. (A new process of reviving drowned swimmers which was invented by HELEN BUELOW).

Class Prophecy

The last attraction before leaving this greatest of all fairs was the exhibition in the athletic tent. Two fights were scheduled for the evening performance.

VANCE "the Villan" CST vs. TERRY "Tear 'um apart" MILLER and

"Lovely" LOYCE FRANK vs. "Hardy" ARDY VAN HEUVELN.

MERLIN BROWN, manager for the villan was sceptical of victory because Merciless MARILYN RAFFELSON had been driving her boy, "Tear 'um apart", hard in preparation for the fight. Referee for the matches was RICHARD RYMAN, an old pro himself---and the water girl for the outfit was "what do you know, JC" PEARSON.

Preceeding the women's tussel it was found necessary, due to their previous records, for GARY "play it straight" GLOMSTAD to give the girls a short lecture on lady like conduct in the ring. No athletic event would be complete without the able cheerleading of KAREN MCNSON and JUDY PAULSON who did an exceptionally good job, considering their age.

later that evening as my jet sped homeward, my mind wandered back over the day's events. It was interesting to note how a group of individuals once so closely united, have, through the years, spread throughout the world into a wide variety of vocations. I shall always remember the class of 1954 as one of the greatest ever!

Yours respectfully,

Sivert B.

ADVERTISING

The Class of 1954 thanks the following businessmen whose contributions have made this book possible.

Previous to last year merchants purchased units of advertising. This year's contributions are based on the old $5.00 units. Each star indicates one unit. Those with no stars are professional men who do not ordinarily purchase advertising space.
